Autumn Concert 2019

Music Hall and some French Follies

Congresbury Singers are presenting their Autumn Concert on Saturday 9th November. It will be held in the Old School Rooms, Congresbury at 7.30pm with the theme of 'Music Hall and some French Follies'. The concert will include many familiar favourites and some audience participation will be encouraged. Gordon Pullin our Musical Director, will set the historical scene and give his usual interesting insights to the pieces.

Tickets, £8 including light refreshments, will be available from members, Congresbury Post Office or on the door. Numbers are limited, so for reserved seating and to avoid disappointment, advance purchase is recommended for what will be another popular programme.
