

FROM FASHION DESIGNER TO COLLEGE LECTURER AN ILLUSTRATED TALK BY JONQUIL BROOKS FOR CAMEO

7.30pm Wednesday 12th April

Methodist Hall

CAMEO hosts a series of monthly meetings for anyone who wants to 'Come Along and Meet Every One' in Congresbury on the second Wednesday of each month. Entry is £2 to include refreshments.

April's speaker will be Jonquil Brooks a Congresbury resident for over 30 years who has had a varied and wide-ranging career firstly as a Fashion Designer working mainly in London, with commissions undertaken in Israel, Sweden, Germany, Turkey, the USA and Canada; and then as a college lecturer working in Further Education colleges, culminating in becoming a College Principal.

She will talk about the designs she has produced for various companies including household names such as M and S, Selfridges and BHS and how she became a college lecturer.
